“I don’t have a clue. Ideas are simply starting points. I can rarely set them down as they come to my mind. As soon as I start to work, others well up in my pen. To know what you’re going to draw, you have to begin drawing… When I find myself facing a blank page, that’s always going through my head. What I capture in spite of myself interests me more than my own ideas.”

“The European Parliament Condemned All Forms of Surrogacy,” The European Post, December 17, 2015
http://europeanpost.co/the-european-parliament-condemned-all-forms-of-surrogacy/

This is a European Union report taking into account all the possible actions relevant to promoting human rights. Among other topics, it took stock on EU actions against the death penalty, fight against torture and ill-treatment, defending freedom of expression, children’s rights and rights of women and girls.

Under the paragraph on “Rights of woman and girls”, sub paragraph 114, it states:
“Condemns the practice of surrogacy, which undermines the human dignity of the woman since her body and its reproductive functions are used as a commodity; considers that the practice of gestational surrogacy which involves reproductive exploitation and use of the human body for financial or other gain, in particular in the case of vulnerable women in developing countries, shall be prohibited and treated as a matter of urgency in human rights instruments”;
