This seminar will explore widely held beliefs around consumption of meat as a form of moral lore and cause of increased moral risk.