The Yale Animal Ethics Forum presents

The Link Between Animal Abuse and Human Violence

Lila Miller, DVM
Vice President for Veterinary Outreach
ASPCA

Animal cruelty is increasingly considered a serious issue by law enforcement and mental health professionals, as well as by the general public. Strong connections linking animal abuse and domestic violence have been documented. This forum will explore the growing body of information relating to human-animal interactions and abuse.

Thursday, February 28
4:15 - 5:15 PM
77 Prospect Street
Room B012